

A Lethbridge Tale,
by Brittany Marie Molenaar

Illustrations created by AI

The Secret Life of Juniper Snow's Rabbits

Publisher: theINVISIBLEme.ca

Printed in Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada

Part of The Invisible Me KIDS addition

Three little rabbits.

Flopsy.

Mopsy.

Big Bertha.

They live in a yard.

The yard is home.

Junie lives there.

She is kind.

She has kids.

The rabbits eat grass.

They hop.

They play.

Flopsy likes food.

She eats and eats.

Yum!

Flopsy eats plants.

She eats flowers.

“Oh no, Flopsy!”

Mopsy likes to go.

She runs fast.

She wants fun.

Big Bertha stays home.

She feels safe.

She feels happy.

It is night.

All is quiet.

Mopsy is awake.

She wants to go.

Dig, dig, dig!

Mopsy digs.

She goes under.

She goes out.

Mopsy looks out.

Big world.

Wow.

One step.

Go, Mopsy, go!

A new adventure begins.

Sight Words Focus

- the
 - is
 - she
 - go
 - to
 - in
 - it
 - all
-

Teacher / Parent Support

Reading Tips:

- Point to each word as the child reads
 - Encourage repeating lines (“Dig, dig, dig!”)
 - Let children act out motions (hop, dig, run)
-

Simple Questions

1. Who are the rabbits?
2. Who likes food?
3. Who likes to go?
4. What does Mopsy do?
5. Is the yard safe?

